Welcome to Friday Open Thread, wherein we'll pass the mic to readers to speak up about topics of interest, distress, horror, etc. Have something you want discussed? Let us know.

[Update]: This chat is now closed, but the Q&A with readers will live on forever in the comments section, so be sure to check that out. Thank you, Tracy, for joining us and sharing your real estate expertise.

Los Angeles realtor Tracy Do of Compass is joining us again for a live Q&A on buying and selling in Los Angeles. From noon to 1 p.m., she'll answer questions from readers; to participate, post your question in the comments section.

Do has been at the LA real estate game for 15 years now. She specializes in Los Feliz, Silver Lake, Echo Park, and surrounding neighborhoods of Northeast Los Angeles, including Highland Park, Glassell Park, and Cypress Park, so take advantage of her expertise. But if you have a question that doesn't pertain to those hot 'hoods, don't be shy.

We'll go live at noon, but you may post your questions in advance.
