Welcome to Curbed Comparisons, where we explore what you can rent or buy for a certain dollar amount in various LA 'hoods. We've found five homes within $10,000 of today's price: $550,000.

Via Tracy Do / Compass

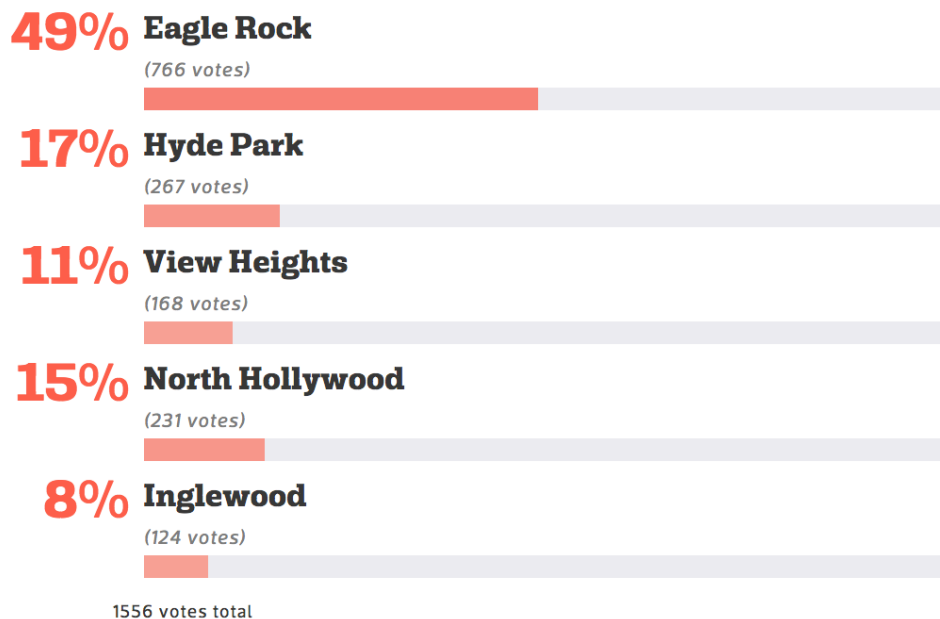

This hillside bungalow, built in 1948, is located on the southern border of Eagle Rock. It squeezes two bedrooms and one bath into its sun-splashed 600 square feet. The 4,878-square-foot property's biggest draw is its outdoor space: “lush gardens and a patio that is primed for outdoor dining” and a deck that’s an “ideal spot to unwind and watch the sunset over a scenic expanse of city lights and the rolling hills of Griffith Park.” It’s on the market for $549,000.
