If the warm spring weather has you daydreaming about a front porch and a garden in-bloom, turn your attention to this cheery little number in Silver Lake.

Built in 1910, the two-bedroom, one-bathroom home features an ample front porch surrounded by wisteria and lavender. The home is a treasure trove of charm, from a bay window to wood floors crafted from Douglas Fir.

The backyard is just as lovely. It's brimming with “apple trees, Persian limes, [and] pink rosemary.”

To top it off, the 6,251-square-foot property is steps from exceedingly-hip Sunset Junction, meaning easy access to bars, shops, and restaurants.

The price tag? $1.05 million.
